FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1745.

Extract of a private Letter from the Hague, dated Auguſt the 17th, 1745.

THE State takes no Notice of ‘ it, but ſuch as are intereſted ‘ in the Eaſt India Company, ‘ cannot help being extremely ‘ alarmed at the Progreſs made ‘ in that Commerce by the ‘ Swedes and Danes. We have ‘ all along flattered ourſelves ‘ with a Notion, that every ‘ Year they ſent Ships to the Indies, would be the laſt; but it is now very certain, that neither of thoſe Companies are in danger of failing; but, on the contrary, extend their Power, and their Credit, every Day. We attribute this, in a great Meaſure, to the Openneſs with which both the Engliſh Eaſt India Company, and our own, declar'd the Profits of that Trade; upon which all the World was put upon endeavouring to gain a Share in it. In Conſequence of theſe Endeavours, ſuch vaſt Quantities of India Goods have been imported within theſe few Years, that it has rais'd a Doubt whether we may not puſh this Branch of Commerce too far, and act in ſuch a manner, as to render it ſcarce beneficial to any body. In ſhort, it is apprehended, that as there is a Balance in this Trade againſt the Europeans in general, the more common it becomes, the higher that Balance will riſe; ſince the Indians, who are the cunningeſt Traders in the World, will infallibly make their Advantage of ſo many different Markets; and as this muſt raiſe the Price of Indian Commodities abroad, ſo it muſt as neceſſarily leſſen their Value here in Europe; and, conſequently, while one Eaſt India Company is endeavouring to underſell and out-trade another, the Balance will come to be entirely in Favour of the Inhabitants of the Eaſt; and we ſhall come at laſt to barter very little elſe than Bullion, againſt the Wares with which they furniſh us. While the Maritime Powers alone drove this Trade, there was no Danger in it; for ſerving as they did, all the reſt of Europe, with Indian Commodities, they procured a good Price to themſelves, by bringing in no vaſt Quantities of Goods, and making their Profits large; a very ſmall Part of which went the next Year to the Indies. Whereas, by this multiplying of Companies, and thereby heightning the Value of what they trade for in the Indies, they muſt infallibly carry out vaſt Quantities of Silver every Year, without leaving it in the Power of any of theſe Companies to draw it back again, as they were wont.

‘ The Affairs of the North remain as dark and perplexed as ever. It is plain enough from the Concluſion of the late Treaty with Ruſſia and Sweden, the aſſembling the States of Ruſſia at Petersburgh, and the Journey of Prince William of Heſſe, to confer with his Brother the King of Sweden, that there is ſomething of more than ordinary Conſequence upon the Carpet; but of what Nature it is, whether it regards ſolely the Syſtem of the North, or whether it may not alſo have ſome Relation to Germany, is what we cannot determine. But from the Knowlege we have of the Czarina's late Interpoſition, in order to reconcile the Courts of Dreſden and Berlin, we begin to ſuſpect that there are ſome new Deſigns on Foot in the Empire; of which we ſhall not have the better Opinion, from the impenetrable Secrecy with which they are conducted. The Negotiations that were lately ſet on Foot here, in reſpect to certain Subſidies, are like to come to nothing; for their High Mightineſſes are determined to entertain no Troops in their Pay, which are not abſolutely at their Diſpoſal, and have therefore ordered their Miniſters to declare ſo much at certain Courts; adding farther, that to pay Troops, and to leave thoſe Troops ſtill at the Diſpoſal of the Prince who is paid for them, is abſolutely parting with Money to no Purpoſe; and that beſides, the Abſurdity is ſtill greater in regard to the Princes of the Empire, whoſe Troops are paid for doing, or, at leaſt, in Hopes of their doing, what, without the Motive of Pay, it is the Intereſt of their Maſters to do, and which they, ſome time or other, muſt do, if they have any Regard for the Liberty or Independency of the Empire. We are told that the Biſhop of Wurtzbourg, on the firſt hinting to him of theſe Particulars, declared, that they were ſo reaſonable and juſt, that he would uſe the utmoſt Induſtry in perſuading the Circle, of which he is Director, to aſſemble its Forces, and to act vigorouſly in Support of the Common Cauſe; of which generous Reſolution, we expect ‘ ſpeedily to ſee the Effects.

‘ There is a Report here, that a new Company ‘ will be ſhortly erected for carrying on the Trade of ‘ the Queen of Hungary's Hereditary Dominions; to ‘ facilitate which, the City of Trieſte, in the Principality of Iſtria, is to be declar'd a Free Port, and convenient Roads made into Hungary, and the Countries ‘ adjacent. This is the ſame Place to which it was ‘ formerly believed the Trade of the Oſtend Company ‘ would be transferred, but it is much fitter for that ‘ for which it is now talk'd of; ſince, as it ſtands on a ‘ good Bay, and at ſo ſmall a Diſtance as 25 Leagues Eaſt ‘ of Venice, it may be eaſily reach'd by either of the ‘ Maritime Powers who carry on at preſent ſo great a ‘ Commerce in the Mediterranean. In the mean time, ‘ however, there is no abſolute Certainty of this Affair; ‘ and, perhaps, it is a Point that will not be fully concluded before we have a general Peace; of which, at ‘ this Juncture, People talk more loudly here than ‘ ever.’

IT is their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices Directions, that all Officers belonging to his Majeſty's Land Forces, ſerving in England or Scotland, do immediately repair to their reſpective Poſts.

William Yonge.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 6, 1745.

THE Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty do hereby ſtrictly direct ſuch of the Petty-Officers and Foremaſt Men, late belonging to his Majeſty's late Ships the Angleſea and Solebay, who are returned from France, and are not already enter'd to ſerve in ſome of his Majeſty's Ships, to repair immediately, the former on board the Tilbury, and the latter on board the Ruby, each Ships fitting out at Portſmouth; on board which Ships they will be paid their Wages for the Angleſea and Solebay before the Tilbury and Ruby proceeds to Sea; and Conduct Money will be allowed them, and Carriage for their Cheſts and Bedding to Portſmouth. But if any of the ſaid Men fail to repair, as above directed, they will not only loſe their Wages for the Angleſea and Solebay, but the Marſhal of the Admiralty will be ordered to apprehend them, in order to their being tried at a Court Martial as Deſerters.

Thomas Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, Auguſt 6, 1745.

SEveral of his Majeſty's Ships fitting out for the Sea in the Ports of this Kingdom, being in immediate want of a Supply of Seamen for the preſent Service, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty have, with the Approbation of their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, ordered every Sixth Seaman to be taken from the Crew of all Ships or Veſſels having Protections; Boys under Eighteen Years, and old Men exceeding Fifty-four Years, not being eſteemed in the Number of the Crew: But their Lordſhips do hereby declare, That all Seamen ſo taken, ſhall be diſcharged whenever they deſire it, after the 30th Day of November next coming, and ſhall have a Ticket made out for their Wages: And their Lordſhips are authoriſed by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, to declare, that the Wages due on ſuch Tickets ſhall be forthwith paid by the Treaſurer of the Navy; and they ſhall, beſides, have a Protection from their Lordſhips, to ſecure them for one Month from the Preſs.

Thomas Corbett.

Certainly nothing can be a clearer Proof of the Excellency of any Commodity, than the Approbation it meets with —— if ſo,

THE ENGLISH GRAPE BRANDY may juſtly claim a Superiority over all other Britiſh Productions, from the conſtant and large Demands the Company have from all Parts of the Kingdom.

To convince the Curious how fitly it is adapted to all manner of Mixtures, viz. Raiſberries, Cherries, &c. there is now prepared a large Quantity of SHRUB with the ſaid BRANDY, and ORANGES when in the greateſt Perfection; which is no Ways inferior (either as a Dram, or for Punch) to that made with the beſt Coniac.

Shrub at 6 s. per Gallon, Brandy at 4 s. per Gallon;
At the Warehouſe the Bottom of Bartholomew-Lane, near the Royal Exchange.

Sixpence per Gallon allow'd to thoſe who take half a Hogſhead, or upwards.

The Second Edition Corrected of the Laws relating to the Poor. By ROBERT FOLEY, Eſq; Barriſter at Law.

WHereas it was inſerted in Yeſterday's Daily Advertiſer, that Ralph Wheeler was committed to Clerkenwell Bridewell by Sir Thomas De Veil, for ſtealing a Silver Watch, the Property of Mr. Paul Portinier, as was a certain Pawnbroker to the Gatehouſe, for receiving the ſame, knowing it to be ſtolen: And whereas the Perſon committed for receiving the ſame, is therein ſaid to be a Pawnbroker, with a Deſign, as is conceived, to caſt a Reflection on the Profeſſion.

The Pawnbrokers following that Buſineſs, and no other, and who lately ſubmitted themſelves to a Parliamentary Enquiry, in Juſtification of their Buſineſs, think it incumbent upon themſelves to inform the Town, in this publick Manner, that the Perſon ſo committed, was not a Pawnbroker, but a Journeyman to a certain Saleſman; it being from Paragraphs of this Kind, deſignedly put in by Enemies to the Profeſſion, that the Odium againſt the Buſineſs has chiefly ariſen.

Dr. BATEMAN's Original and Only True Wholeſale and Retale Warehouſe at the Printing-Office, facing the South Door of Bow Church, the lower End of the Church Yard, from Cheapſide, London.

THE Daily Succeſs which has conſtantly attended the taking Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, in the ſeveral Diſtempers of Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Breaſt, Limbs, and Joints, has gained them ſo univerſal a Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houſes.——Beſides the Diſtempers above-mentioned, there is no one Medicine, ſince the Diſcovery of the Art of Phyſick, that will give a ſpeedier Relief and Eaſe in all Rheumatick Pains, Gout, Stone, Gravel, Cholick, &c Innumerable Inſtances might be given of the happy Effects thereof, but we chuſe to refer to a Book, call'd, A Short Treatiſe of the Virtues of Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, given gratis, at the Warehouſe aboveſaid; where all Shop-keepers, &c. in any City, Town, or Village, where theſe Drops are not already ſold, may be ſupplied, with good Allowance to ſell again, by directing or ſending to the Patentee,

BENJAMIN OKELL,
WM. and CLUER DICEY.

☞ The ſurprizing Encouragement, which by conſtant Succeſs, theſe moſt valuable Drops have, for upwards of Twenty Years, met with, not only in Great-Britain and Ireland, but in all Parts of the Weſt-Indies, and other Foreign Countries, has lately induced ſeveral mean and mercenary Pretenders to counterfeit them; and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show Boards, with our Method of Advertiſing, as near as they can or dare to do, without making them the ſame, thereby impoſe their dangerous Compoſitions upon the unwary and credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, for the True and Genuine Sort.

The Patentee and Company therefore, in Gratitude for the univerſal good Reception they have ſo long met with, and for the Safety of thoſe who for the future may be deſirous of uſing the ſame, think themſelves abſolutely obliged to give this neceſſary Caution;

Which they earneſtly requeſt may be obſerved,

That the Bottle they buy is not only ſeal'd with the Boar's Head, but has alſo theſe Words round it, BY THE KING's PATENT, as in the Margin; and alſo that the Names of the Patentee, Benj. Okell, William and Cluer Dicey, be in the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle; without which, you may be aſſur'd it is a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of the moſt dangerous Conſequence.

BETTON's Only True Britiſh Oil, Publiſhed by Virtue of the KING's Royal Letters Patent.

WE, Michael and Thomas Betton, Inventors and Patentees of the true only true Britiſh Oil, having, ſince June, 1743, diſcontinued ſupplying Mr. Colley with the ſame, give this publick Notice, That it is now ſold Wholeſale and Retale, by our ſpecial Appointment, at William and Cluer Dicey, and Company, at Dr. Bateman's Warehouſe in Bow Churchyard, London; where all Merchants, Captains of Ships, Shop-keepers, and others, are deſired to apply for the ſame.

Michael Betton,
Thomas Betton.

This Oil is an effectual Remedy for many Diſeaſes incident to Human Bodies. It is an abſolute Cure for all Rheumatick and Rheumatick Diſeaſes, for all old Contuſions and Contractions of the Nerves or contracted and withered Limbs, Strains, Ulcers, old Sores, all fixed and wandering Pains, diſcuſſes Nodes, cures the Palſy, Lameneſs, Swellings, Inflammations, St. Anthony's Fire, and King's Evil; takes away all Blackneſs of a Fall or Bruiſe in an Hour's Time, and allays all Swellings that uſually attend ſuch Accidents. It cures all green Wounds and Cuts, if ſpeedily applied. It is an infallible Remedy for the Rickets in Children; it's certain Cure for the Leproſy of ever ſo long ſtanding, very much helps to knit broken Bones, and is an excellent Antidote againſt Poiſon. Inwardly taken it cures Ulcers of the Lungs, Shortneſs of Breath, Conſumptions, Phthyſick, Cough, and almoſt all Diſorders of the Breaſt or Lungs; it alſo cures Deafneſs to Admiration; it cures all Surfeits in Cows or Horſes, all Hardneſs or Stoppage in the Maw, the Maggots or Magpie in Sheep, &c.

N. B. It will expel Poiſon, beat the Bite of a Mad Dog, and is an abſolute Cure for the moſt obſtinate Itch that has reſiſted the Force of all other Medicines.

 Obſerve, That the Bottles which contain the ſaid only True Britiſh Oil, are ſealed with the Arms, as in the Margin, and the Words, (BETTON's BRITISH OIL BY THE KING's PATENT) round it; all others being counterfeits.

And whereas ſeveral mean People have of late made a Trade of Hawking an Oil about the City and Country, from Door to Door, by the Name of the Britiſh Oil, which they impoſe on the credulous Shop-keepers, and others, for the True Sort: We think it our Duty to caution the World againſt ſuch ſcandalous Counterfeits, tranſpiring in Oppoſition to our moſt valuable Oil, and in Contempt of his Majeſty's Patent.

The Great Carminative.

A moſt famous Tincture for the Wind Cholick,

IN what Part ſoever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures the ſevereſt Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) too a Minute.

For all wandering Pains in any Part ſoever, which are in ſome Perſons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatiſm, in others the Gout (miſtaken many times under the Notion of Sciatick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in theſe Caſes on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither ſit, ſtand, nor lie at Eaſe; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and in taking leſs than half a Bottle, were abſolutely freed from their preſent Pain, and, by a ſhort Continuance of the Cure, recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind, or, in ſhort, in any Caſe of Wind, it may be depended on as the beſt, ſafeſt, moſt expeditious, and moſt ſovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is ſold only by Mr. King, Pointeſeller, in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, and by Mr. Martin, Hoſier, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland in Cranbourn-alley, near Leiceſter-fields, at 3s. the Bottle.

By the ſaid Mr. King and Mr. Martin is alſo ſold for 3s. the Bottle, Retail.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

Whoſe INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it ſo much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmoſt Perfection, and is in the greateſt Eſteem amongſt Ladies, &c. of the firſt Quality. No Words can ſufficiently expreſs its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a falſe and unnatural Gloſs on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Uſe, really gives a Luſtre to the moſt Beautiful, by ſcouring the fine Features of the Face, and is ſo ſafe, not having the leaſt Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly, and if ſmelled to, is really good againſt Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and aſſuredly cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthful Luſtre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for ſuch Perſons as are of a ſwarthy Complexion, or troubled with any diſagreeable Redneſs, Roughneſs, Morphew, Heats, or the like, it is not to be paralleld; for it immediately ſmooths, clears, plumps, nouriſhes, and whitens the Skin to the laſt Degree, and makes thoſe Perſons who before look'd hagged and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair; and, in ſhort, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known or made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.

It will keep good twice Seven Years, well cork'd, in any Part of the World.

Good Allowance is given by the Dozen to ſell again.
